Translation from CPDL:

*O great mystery and wonderful sacrament, that animals should see the new-born Lord lying in a manger!
Blessed is the Virgin, whose womb was worthy to bear Christ the Lord.*

℣. Hail Mary, full of grace: the Lord is with you.

Blessed is the Virgin, whose womb was worthy to bear Christ the Lord.

Translation from preces-Latinae.org:

1. *O Blest Creator of the light, / Who mak'st the day with radiance bright,
/ and o'er the forming world didst call / the light from chaos first of all;*
2. *Whose wisdom joined in meet array / the morn and eve, and named them
Day: / night comes with all its darkling fears; / regard Thy people's prayers and tears.*
3. Lest, sunk in sin, and whelmed with strife, / they lose the gift of endless life; / while thinking but the thoughts of time, / they weave new chains of woe and crime.
4. But grant them grace that they may strain / the heavenly gate and prize to gain: / each harmful lure aside to cast, / and purge away each error past.
5. *O Father, that we ask be done, / through Jesus Christ, Thine only Son;
/ Who, with the Holy Ghost and Thee, / doth live and reign eternally.
Amen.*

Translation from preces-Latinae.org:

1. Ye sons and daughters of the Lord, / the King of glory, King adored, / this day Himself from death restored.
2. All in the early morning gray / went holy women on their way, / to see the tomb where Jesus lay.
3. Of spices pure a precious store / in their pure hands these women bore, / to anoint the sacred Body o'er.
4. The straightaway one in white they see, / who saith, "seek the Lord: but He / is risen and gone to Galilee."
5. This told they Peter, told John; / who forthwith to the tomb are gone, / but Peter is by John outrun.
6. That self-same night, while out of fear / the doors were shut, their Lord most dear / to His Apostles did appear.
